New publications NOW AVAILABLE

'When I am 2...' a follow up to the very popular 'Step up to the challenge', this photo book encourages practitioners to reflect on what being two actually means! A great book to inspire good practice and to support child development across this very important age and stage.

'Building on Foundations' ... A journal of case studies of good practice from across the county.

From Muddy outdoors to Observation assessment and planning, this journal will give you an insight how others changed their practice to improve outcomes for all of their children on a budget!
